

ARCHANGEL METATRON

Greetings, dear ones. I am the Archangel who embodies the highest level of physical existence. This includes what is unknown and unseen at your present conscious level of perception. My energies pervade all of physical existence and serve as what you might call your 'highest connection' into Source. I am a bridge that connects Source and the Creator directly into physical existence. All of you are creators with the Source. You are learning to recognize all of your creative abilities. I can help you to connect into that highest part of yourself which is that clearest aspect of the Source connection or your Source Being.

We, of the Angelic Kingdom, do not create consciously as humans do. We simply are extensions of Source and we are the Source substance with which you create. Therefore, as creators, you are the ones who direct the use of our energies and you are the ones who decide what we will create within physical existence. We embody Source's Plan itself. When you choose to work with this Plan and to utilize it, it is our energies which form your connection into it. Without your decision to utilize what we are and to become a part of this Plan, we remain simply a blueprint or an energy flow which does not connect into anything specific. Without your conscious desire to use our spiritual energies, we remain simply undifferentiated Source Substance which has not had the opportunity to become a part of physical existence; our energies are not able to connect into the potentials that are there within physical existence and they can not help it to bloom, grow and express all that the Creator has chosen to express through it. Without you, we cannot participate in the development of your creative opportunities which Source has given you on Earth.

You might look at us as a flow which allows Source to be present within physical existence and to be expressed as physical substance on your Earth. All that you see around you as physical matter is Source substance which has been converted into physical matter through your conscious desire to create with it and through your utilization of the structure we provide which allows you to create.

There are 10 Archangels who serve as ten levels of the Plan for your Earth. I am the one that is most like the energy of Source. There are others who embody the other planes of physical existence. Each one of us has specific aspects of ourselves that operate at our energy level, working within other Angelic Beings who make up the totality of all that we are. They are also here to serve the purpose and the desires of the Creator and of you as co-creators.

Source has chosen to become physical through each of you. Therefore, you serve as co-creators with Source to build your Earth and to give it an increasingly more spiritual expression. The level you are working on at this time is called the "New Age."

The Archangels embody the skeletal structure of the Plan which Source has for the Earth and for the New Age. Each angelic energy is a stepping stone to the next higher level of understanding the Source Plan. Each step is necessary for the continuity of its flow into physical existence and none is more important than any other. It is not necessary for you to understand completely each of these creative levels of the Plan, but it is necessary for you to understand clearly what you are building and what you desire to create on your Earth. The higher you are able to stretch in your consciousness, the more clearly you can see the whole picture and the more easily you can see how your part fits into the whole and how all of the co-creators serve the Plan as a complete unit.

Many of you now are beginning to see your purposes in terms of the whole and are beginning to realize the importance of working together as a group to bring forth the New Age. The time for individual efforts has passed.

The efforts which have meaning now and are effective will be those that take into account the abilities, desires and purposes of a group. We can help you blend the energies of your group at whatever level that group can reach. We can help you to gain an even greater understanding of how these work together. Some groups may work with a few levels of the Divine Plan and a few levels of Archangelic energies. Others, through their clarity of vision and their ability to connect into higher aspects of the Plan, use more of these levels of angelic energies. Each group receives the help it needs and which it is capable of using. As the group grows and matures, it is able to handle greater amounts and finer aspects of angelic energy. Then, it is able to enter deeper and higher levels of the Plan itself.

Those of you who choose to make an effort to communicate with me will receive whatever help you need to connect into the appropriate level at which you are working as a creator. I will help you connect into the Plan and realize your purpose. I will aid you in making the most of your opportunities on the Earth. I am working to help you connect into the Plan at the Galactic level.

My energies are bringing to the Earth the Divine Blueprint which you need to create a more efficient creative structure from your own physical bodies. This light which I am, and which I focus from the Galactic Center, carries the next level of the Divine Blueprint which you need to pattern your physical structure for existence in the New Age. As you desire to serve the Plan and allow yourselves to become a part of it, you become connected into these higher energies. This energy of the Plan is being used within your physical structure to make your body stronger, more efficient and closer to the ideal. You will be able to create for yourselves bodies which never get sick, which do not age and which will serve you by becoming exactly what you want them to be.

If your purposes and desires are in line with the Plan, this creative opportunity for building a perfect physical structure comes much more easily. The design of this new structure allows an easier connection into your own Source level awareness and a clearer connection to your Creator. Those who do not desire to align with the Plan are clearly not able to utilize this Divine Blueprint. It will not suit their purposes as they selfishly seek something which is not a part of the Plan.

There are many Angelic Beings who help me provide this connection into Source's Plan for you. There are many Spiritual Teachers who are available now to help you allow this connection and help you understand more fully how to use it. I am one who is here to serve you as you create your New Age on Earth. I am one who humbly offers his services to all of you as co-creators of your New Earth. I have worked with many of you before at different levels of your understanding and at different levels of being. I am available now to continue that relationship and to serve you as creators in anyway that I can.

Thank you.
